5,000+ Students | 40,000+ Patrons | 90,000+ Visitors

Your support strengthens PACE's exhibitions, performances, and educational programs, keeping them affordable and accessible to everyone in our community. Together, we can inspire and enrich lives through the arts. PACE offers the following programming at low or no cost to the community:

- Chanticleer Community Theater: Managed by PACE, Chanticleer presents five theater productions annually, with over 32 performances.
- Council Bluffs Symphony Orchestra: CBSO, also managed by PACE, performs 6 concerts each year.
- Educational Programs: PACE delivers over 150 classes and programs for youth, adults, and families in collaboration with teaching artists. Examples include pottery, painting, culinary arts, the PACE Speaker Series, and our popular summer camps.
- Hoff Fourth Fridays: PACE hosts 10 Fourth Friday events, bringing together the best of the Hoff Center, including Kitchen Council food pop-ups, local live music, and educational experiences.
- Gallery Exhibitions: PACE curates nearly 8,500 square feet of gallery space, including our permanent Grant Wood murals exhibit and 3–4 new exhibitions annually, such as the popular PACE New Masters juried art competition.
- Artist Studios: PACE subsidizes five artist studios where artists interact with the community, participate in exhibitions, and teach classes and workshops.
- Community Programs: PACE hosts popular events like the Music in the Park series and collaborates with community partners to help execute events like Celebrate CB and Winterfest.
- Public Art: PACE partners with local artists to enhance the image and identity of our community through public art installations.

As a nonprofit 501(c)(3), PACE relies on the support of sponsors who share our values to ensure the arts continue to thrive and serve our community.
